

Any Town In Ireland Would Be Home

8 Bar Intro

Verse: 1

I'm sitting in a bar room in Chicago all alone
Looking at the rain coming down
Put another nickel in the jukebox on the wall
And ill play a few old songs from way back home

Verse: 2

The record started playing and it mentioned Donegal
Then it gave a mention to Tyrone
The words don't mean nothing when your sitting in a bar
When any town in Ireland would be home

Chorus:

Any town in Ireland would be home
Just a cottage by the river all alone
I'm sitting in a bar room in Chicago Sunday morning
When any town in Ireland would be home

8 Bar Solo + Key Change

Verse: 3

Another record mentions Galway and Mayo
Roscomin Dublin and Aflone
The bar tender asked me what town I came from
I said any town in Ireland would be home

Chorus: x 2

I'm sitting in a bar room in Chicago Sunday morning
When any town in Ireland would be home
