

Bound For Glory

That old Kentucky moon was shining bright up in the sky
She slipped out through the door way and never said goodbye
Just a note left on the table, and this is what it read
“Forgive me dad I'm leaving were gone to be wed.”

Chorus :

And they were bound for glory, two young lovers on the run
All they ever wanted was a chance to prove that their love was strong
They were bound for glory, through their eyes that's the way it seemed
In love for now and ever, heading out somewhere to live their dreams

Then a few miles down the highway, they spied a small cafe
They would stop and have a bite to eat, and then be on their way
And he couldn't help but notice the sparkle in her eye
So he leaned across and kissed her, and said I love you till I die

Chorus:

Well through the night they travelled taking turns behind the wheel
She suggested pulling over maybe get a little sleep
They said it was the tyres on his pick up were to blame
They're dreams ended together in a burning mass of flames.

Chorus:

In love for now and ever
Heading out somewhere to live their dreams
