

Let's Go Waltzing Together

Darlin', come sit here beside me. There's a few things I'd like you to hear.
They're long overdue, and they so very true. And you haven't heard them in years.
They say that good wine gets better, like a good book improves on each page.
But I'll tell you now, the best I know how. You've sure gotten better with age.

Chorus:

So let's go waltzin' together, just like in days come before.
And I must confess, I don't love you less. Why darlin' I'm loving you more.
So let's do the things that we used to. Let's turn the clock back some time.
And I whisper sincere those words in your ear, like I did when first you were mine.

Darling I feel I must tell you, no matter how long it has been.
And if I ruled a mighty big kingdom, you must be there as my queen.
For your love is so rich and so gentle, so undemanding it's true.
So I'll tell you my darling it's true, I love you, I love you, I do.

Chorus

Darlin' have I just upset you? Do I see the start of a tear?
You say it's just that you're happy, these words you've been longing to hear.
Oh darlin', I'm sorry I've waited, I shouldn't have taken so long.
I don't always reveal the love that I feel, but I'll tell you each day from now on.

Chorus

And I whisper sincere those words in your ear, like I did when first you were mine.
