

Second Hand Heart

Tell me darling is there someone else sharing all my love
When I hold and kiss you is it him you're thinking of?
I've got this feeling deep inside and don't know what to do
Where has all our love gone, where is me and you?

There's no need to pretend you're still in love with me
Although I will break my heart, I will set you free
I want you here beside me, only if your love is true
But right now I feel that what I love, loves somebody new

Chorus:

You know you were happy from the very start
When you said you loved me, I gave you my heart
Our lives we've shared together, now we've drifted apart
What can I do with this second hand heart?

All the love that we had was not enough for you
The life planned together, dreams that won't come true
You have found another, my world's fell apart
All that's left for me is to heal this broken heart

Chorus

Someday I'll get over you this heart of mine will mend
And maybe one day I will fall in love again
'Til then I'm free and single, not a worry or a care
'Cause when love turns to heartache, the pain is hard to bear.

Chorus

Our lives we've shared together, now we've drifted apart
What can I do with this second hand heart?
