

The Kingdom I Call Home

I don't have a gold mine in Alaska
And this won't be the year I fly to Rome
I don't have oil wells in Oklahoma
Oh, but I have a kingdom I call home

I don't have an army in my kingdom
But I don't have to fight my wars alone
The love of my woman is all I need
To help me rule the kingdom I call home

Chorus:

And the Queen of the castle wears a plain cotton dress
And the little princess plays with paper dolls
While the keeper of the kingdom is rich in happiness
And the world is locked outside the palace walls

8 BAR SOLO

This world may never know I walk its valleys
And history won't carve my name in stone
But when my children are grown, they'll remember
There was love in this kingdom I called home

Chorus

Yes, the world is locked outside the palace walls.
