

Will You Love Me When I'm Old And Feeble

CHORUS:

Will you love me when I'm old and feeble
Will you love me when I'm old and gray
When this heart of mine grows tired and weary
Will you love me as you do today

When our children all grow up and leave us
To have sweet families of their own
Will you still be happy with me darling
Will you still be happy in our home

CHORUS:

SOLO

When the shades of life begin to lower
And fate descends upon our home
With graying hair and hands that tremble
Will all your love still be my own

CHORUS:

Will you love me as you do today
