

Leighann Loves To Dance

Well, she can leave her house down south in Wexford
And travel anywhere across the land
To listen to her favourite singer and dance to her favourite band
We've seen her dancin' Waterford and Kerry
And even Leitrim's ballroom of romance
We've seen her up in Donegal and Derry
And we all know that Leighann loves to dance.

Chorus:

Leighann loves to dance, Leighann loves to dance
When the music plays It lifts her heart like a fairy tale romance.
She move and sway when the music plays if you give her half a chance.
'Cause Leighann, Leighann loves to dance.

She must have danced in every county
I swear, she's been in every town
From Dublin, through the mid-lands down to Galway
From county Cork right up to County Down
She's even followed us across the water
To dance in London's famous Galtymore
If you look around tonight you just might see her
Dancing right behind you on the floor
