

Home Away From Here

I didn't sleep a wink last night I waited til' the dawn
Baging out the jigs and reels til everyone was gone
Singing some ole should I songs I haven't sung in years
Knocking back the vodka and the beer

Chorus:

Back across the ocean to my home away from home
Im glad to be returning but sad to have to go
I'd like to find a way to be two places at one time
But its easy going back again but its hard to say goodbye

I had one bag to many as i was set to leave
I was loaded on the bacon, sausages and tea
And I could't find my ticket as i'm walking out the door
Til' I emptied all the bags out on the floor

Chorus:

Onboard a plane I sipped a drink while waiting on my meal
Trying not to let me know how my stomach feels
Theres a baby right behind me making sure that I wont sleep
And the flights too full to find another seat

Chorus:

I fell asleep at last just as the plane was touching down
And an 80 years of waiting for me bags to come around
I might get home at last but i'm barely unpacked when
Im already making plans to go again

Chorus: x 2

Its easy going back again but it's hard to say goodbye
