

Rollin Home

I left my home one day, For the sake of better pay
In a foreign land twelve centuries back in time
Where the sun keeps burning down, On the hole drilled in the ground
And I dreamed of that girl I left behind

Well I signed on the dotted line, And I thought in a few years time
I'd be home and we could start a brand new life
But everything went wrong, And I just didn't know how long
They would make me stay to pay for my crime

CHORUS

And I wish I was rollin' home, rollin' home
Home to the place I long to be
Oh, oh, oh, rollin' home, rollin' home
There's someone waiting there for me

4 BAR SOLO

There's a law that rules this land, That I just don't understand
I didn't know that I was doing wrong
But they don't seem to care, They all do it when they're over there
But here your face is justice of their God

All the money that I've saved, To pay for better days
Can't make up for how I miss you so
There's no consolation prize, But when I close my eyes
I'm dreaming of you in our new home

CHORUS x2
