

Kelly's Mountain Dew

Intro

Kelly was an Irish man there is no doubt of that
His Mother's name was Brigitte and his Father's name was Pat
Kelly came from Ireland he was lured back home again
He left the rocky mountains to perpetuate the name

Chorus

Oh, the green and rocky mountains by the waters of Gweedore
It stood for many, many years and would stand for many more
It was the home of Kelly and he dyed his water blue
Because he was so lonely Kelly made his mountain dew

Instrumental

There came a poor old devil upon the mountain top
He said "now Mr Kelly I would like a little drop"
Begorra now you'll get some as he opened wide the door
He dropped the poor old devil in the waters of Gweedore

Key Change

Kelly loved the highlands but he could not live alone
The breezes kept a callin' Kelly thought he must come home
The breezes kept a callin' kept a callin' night and day
And from the rocky mountains up the road and far away

Chorus

Because he was so lonely Kelly made his mountain dew
